Summary

Project Status Summary
Our project consists of a mobile app and web app.

The mobile app was to be completed by the start of this status report's period. However, it will most likely be finished by next week. The web app has been created and initialized. However, the completion of the frontend has also been pushed a week.

As it is now, two parts of the backend implementation of the mobile are yet to be completed. Two parts of the frontend of the web app need to be completed. Those members who have completed both these (mobile app and frontend of web app) will proceed to work on the backend implementation of the web app.

Issues that may occur in the future mainly revolve around two aspects. The first being the ability for every team member to contribute proportionately in a timely manner. The second being the merging of individual branches and integration testing.

Despite the delays in completing the mobile app and unfinished segments of the frontend of the web app, we do anticipate completing the project on time. |

Accomplishments As Planned	Planned but not Accomplished
Initialize Web App & Assign Tasks: This task was accomplished but it was delayed by a week due to the mobile application. Instead of initiating on the 30th of January, we did it on the 5th of February.	Merge Individual Parts: We had originally planned to complete the mobile application by the 30th of January. This was not accomplished due to incomplete parts.
	Fix Bugs in Mobile App: This, again, did not occur due to a delay in the completion of the mobile app.
	Complete Frontend of Web App: This task was originally planned for February 1st, however, it has been pushed to February 13th which is beyond this status report's scope.
